The stockbroker's secretary answered his phone one morning. "I'm sorry," she said. "Mr. Bradford's on another line."

"This is Mr. Ingram's office," the caller said. "We'd like to know if he's bullish or bearish right now."

"He's talking to his wife," the secretary replied. "Right now I'd say he's sheepish."

If a lawyer and an IRS agent were both drowning, and you could only save one of them, would you go to lunch or read the newspaper?

Did you hear about the new sushi bar that caters exclusively to lawyers?

It's called, Sosumi.

After a long, bumpy flight, our passengers were glad to finally land. They disembarked, and the other attendants and I checked for items left behind. In a seat pocket, I found a bag of homemade cookies with a note saying, "Much love, Mom."

Quickly, I gave the bag to our gate agent in hopes it would be reunited with its owner.

In few minutes, this announcement came over the P.A. system in the concourse: "Would the passenger who lost his cookies on Flight 502, please return to the gate?"

I asked my two-year-old to take his dirty clothes and put them into the hamper.

He looked puzzled, and I explained, "You know; it's the place where we put our dirty clothes before they're washed."

My son picked up his things, ran into my bedroom, and threw his clothes on the floor...on his dad's side of the bed.

A circus owner walked into a bar to see everyone crowded about a table watching a little show. On the table was an upside-down pot and a duck tap dancing on it. The circus owner was so impressed that he offered to buy the duck from its owner. After some wheeling and dealing they settled for $10,000 for the duck and the pot.

Three days later the circus owner runs back to the bar in anger, "Your duck is a rip-off! I put him on the pot before a whole audience and he didn't dance a single step!"

"So?" asked the ducks former owner, "did you remember to light the candle under the pot?"

I believe for every drop of rain that falls, a flower grows and a foundation leaks and a ball game gets rained out and a car rusts and...

Twenty two of my friends and I went to a Halloween party dressed as circus clowns. That way we could all go in one car.

The doctor answered the phone and heard the familiar voice of a colleague on the other end of the line. "We need a fourth for poker," said the friend.

"I'll be right over," whispered the doctor.

As he was putting on his coat, his wife asked, "Is it serious?"

"Oh yes, quite serious," said the doctor gravely. "In fact, there are three doctors there already!"

Did you hear that Arkansas has raised the minimum drinking age to 32?

It seems they want to keep alcohol out of the high schools!

The school bell rang just as little Johnny started eating a Popsicle, and since he didn't want to waste it, he stuck it in his pants pocket. In the classroom the teacher asked little Vicky what they called people who lived at the North Pole. She said, "Eskimos."

Then the teacher asked little Teresa what they called people who live in Mexico. She said, "Mexicans."

The teacher asked Johnny what they called people who live in Europe, and Johnny said, "I don't know."

Then super-smart little Mary behind Frankie said, "European."

Little Johnny's face turned red and he screamed, "I AM NOT! My Popsicle is melting!"

A father took his 5-year-old son to several baseball games where The Star-Spangled Banner was sung before the start of each game.

Then the father and son attended church on a Sunday shortly before Independence Day.

The congregation sang The Star-Spangled Banner, and after everyone sat down, the little boy suddenly yelled out, "PLAY BALL!!!"

Why isn't chocolate one of the four basic food groups?

"OLD" is when...

1. Your sweetie says 'Let's go upstairs and make love' and you answer 'honey, I can't do both'.
2. Your friends compliment you on your new alligator shoes and you are barefoot.
3. A beautiful young woman catches your fancy and your pacemaker opens the garage door nearest your car.
4. You don't care where your spouse goes, just as long as you don't have to go along.
5. When it takes longer to rest than to get tired.
6. When you are cautioned to slow down by the doctor instead of the police.
7. 'Getting a little action' means you don't need to take any fibre today.
8. 'Getting lucky' means you find your car in the parking lot.
9. An 'all nighter' means not getting up to pee.

Two housewives were discussing their home lives over shopping. One said, "It seems like all Alfred and I do anymore is fight. I've been so upset over our last fight I've lost 20 pounds."

"Why don't you just leave him then?" asked her friend.

"Oh! Not yet." the first replied, "I'd like to lose at least another 10 pounds."

A Marine colonel, on his way home from work at the Pentagon, came to a dead halt in traffic and thought to himself, "Wow, this traffic seems worse than usual. Nothing's even moving."

He notices a police officer walking back and forth between the lines of cars so he rolls down his window and asks, "Excuse me, Officer, what's the hold up?"

The Officer replies, "President Clinton is just so depressed about the impeachment thing he stopped his motorcade in the middle of the Beltway and he's threatening to douse himself in gasoline and set himself on fire. He says his family hates him and he doesn't have the $33.5 million he owes his lawyers. I'm walking round taking up a collection for him".

"Oh really? How much have you collected so far?"

"So far only about three hundred gallons, but I've got a lot of folks still siphoning."

so I let her up.

A drunk left the bar at two o'clock in the morning and promptly walked into the nearest lamp post. Unable to see well, he felt the post carefully with his hands and proceeded to walk around it three or four times.

Finally he slumped down on the curb and buried his head in his hands. "It is just no use," he sobbed, "I'm walled in!"

Did you hear about the kid who was pulled over for speeding?
The cop got out of his car and the young man rolled down his window.

"I've been waiting for you all day," the cop said.

The guy replied, "Yeah, well I got here as fast as I could."

When the cop finally stopped laughing, he sent the kid on his way without a ticket.
